Honduras and Jamaica face each other in the Concacaf World Cup Qualifiers 2022 Final Round. This game will take place at Estadio Olímpico Metropolitano in San Pedro Sula today, October 13, 2021 at 8:05 PM (ET). Two national teams desperate for three points. Here is all the detailed information about this World Cup Qualifiers game including the date, preview, storylines, predictions, odds and how to watch it in the US.

The home team, lost the last game in Matchday 5 against Mexico on the road, Honduras lost that game by 3-0, but before that loss they had drawn at home against Costa Rica. The team is in a bad position in the table with only three points.

The last place in the final round table is for Jamaica as they have not won a single game during this last stage of the tournament prior to Qatar 2022. At least the most recent game for Jamaica was a draw at home.

Honduras vs Jamaica: Storylines

Honduras like Jamaica have not won a game in the Final Round of the Concacaf World Cup Qualifiers. The three points they have is thanks to three draws against Canada 1-1, El Salvador 0-0 and Costa Rica 0-0. The other two games were losses. Honduras have been able to score only two goals and the defense has allowed 8 goals.

Jamaica are in the worst possible situation, it is unlikely that they will be able to play in Qatar 2022, the last place of the standings in the Final Round is a deep hole. But if they win 4-5 games things could be different. The last positive result for Jamaica was a 0-0 draw against Canada at home.

Both teams are at the bottom of the table but still have time to win games and climb a few places on the table in the final round. After this game, Honduras play Panama at home, and then in Matchday 8 against Costa Rica on the road.

Honduras vs Jamaica: Predictions And Odds

Honduras are favorites at home with -110 moneyline at FanDuel, they are weak scoring goals but the defense has been strong against opponents of the same level at home. Jamaica are underdogs with +390 moneyline, the totals are set at 2 goals. The best pick for this World Cup Qualifiers game is: Over 2.

Jamaica needs an immediate rebound and almost a miracle if they are to have any chance of qualifying for the World Cup for the first time since 1998. This knockout round has seen Jamaica lose 2-0 in the United States, and score a point at home by drawing 0-0 against Canada. The Reggae Boyz began their campaign with two losses; first, they lost 2-1 to Mexico at Estadio Azteca and then lost 3-0 at home to Panama. In their third qualifying game, Theodore Whitmore's team earned their first point thanks to Shamar Nicholson's draw, which led Jamaica to a 1-1 draw against Costa Rica.

Like the Hondurans, the Reggae Boyz have only scored two goals and conceded eight, but as a precedent is the fact that they won in their last two games against Honduras.

Honduras is still looking for its first victory in qualifying for the Qatar 2022 World Cup and in the face of poor results, it faces a difficult fight to reach its fourth World Cup. His first two qualifying games earned him two points thanks to draws against Canada and El Salvador, but then Honduras suffered a strong 4-1 loss to the United States.

The Catrachos started with a goalless draw against Costa Rica and in their last match, they suffered a disappointing defeat by losing 3-0 to Mexico at the Estadio Azteca.

Honduras has only scored two goals in its first five games, a very poor production, and if it wants to reach the World Cup, it will have to start finding the net more regularly. The other concern of coach Fabián Coito is that his defense has also fallen very badly, as the Honduran team has conceded eight goals in its five games.

The match will be played at Estadio Olímpico Metropolitano

The Estadio Olímpico Metropolitano is a multipurpose stadium located in San Pedro Sula, Honduras. It was completed on September 25, 1997 and inaugurated on December 5, 1997 for the VI Central American Games, it is the Olympic stadium with the largest capacity in Central America and the Caribbean, with a capacity to house 37,3,256 people.

It is currently used for soccer matches although it also has athletic facilities and is located in the largest urban area in the country, which is the Metropolitan Area of the Sula Valley.
